EVENTS OF INTEREST IN VARIOUS PARTS OF THE STATE.

Died While on a Visit—Social Club Raided
In Middletown—Dead Near the Railroad Tracks—A Brakeman's Leg Amputated—A Shooting Affray—High Times at Stony Creek—"The Band Played On"—A Large Fire in Putnam Yesterday—A Young Bridgeport Lady, Heiress to $100,000, Disappears and is Thought to Have Eloped.

Hartford, Dec. 22.—Daniel T. Potter, a brother of County Commissioner Potter of this county, died at the hospital in this city this morning. He was visiting his brother in Hartford, having come from a western home. He was taken sick a few days ago and removed to the hospital. Bright's disease was the primary cause of death.

A SUNDAY RAID.
Middletown, Dec. 22.—An organization known as the Social club to-day became a thing of the past as a result of a raid made by the police early this morning. This club has borne a shady reputation for some time and the police have been watching it closely. Last night officers had their suspicions aroused and at an early hour this morning descended upon the place. One man and a woman were arrested. The man is William Hartigan and the woman gives her name as Nellie Kelsey and says she hails from Meriden. None of the club members has been at the rooms to-day.

A JERSEY CITY MAN KILLED.
New London, Dec. 22.—A man was found dead near the railroad tracks in East New London last night. He is believed to have fallen from a train or been struck by one. He is thought to be John Boyle of 62 Hopkins street, Jersey City. In his pocket was found a letter evidently from his wife.

A BRAKEMAN'S SAD MISFORTUNE.
New London, Dec. 22.—Nelson A. Crossby, a brakeman, fell from a switching engine at Fort Neck yesterday afternoon. His hat blew off and in an effort to catch it he fell to the ground and he was struck by the 355 west bound Shore Line train. Amputation was necessary and the operation was performed at the Memorial hospital. He will recover.

35 HANDS LAID OFF.
Norwalk, Dec. 22.—Gilbert & Bennett, manufacturers of wire goods, last night laid off twenty-five of their 250 hands. This action is due to poor business, and it is possible that more of the men will be thrown out of employment temporarily. The factories are located at Georgetown, near here.

A SHOOTING AFFRAY.
Wilton, Dec. 22.—A shooting affray occurred at the house of Thomas Saunders last night. A few days ago a stranger came to town and was boarding with Saunders. Last night the two became involved in a quarrel and Saunders shot his boarder. The ball entered the mouth, knocking out several teeth and lodged in the back of his head. The wounded man refuses to give his name and Saunders will not talk about the matter. The injury will probably not prove fatal. Saunders, owing to the proverbial slowness of Wilton, is still at large and no effort has been made to prosecute him for the shooting.

NORWALK MAN BADLY INJURED.
Norwalk, Dec. 22.—This afternoon T. S. Vanderhoof, one of the wealthiest residents of this place, was driving on Washington street, South Norwalk, this afternoon, when his horses became frightened at a train and ran away. Mr. Vanderhoof was thrown out and badly injured. His injuries will probably not prove fatal.

A BIG ITALIAN WEDDING.
Stony Creek, Dec. 22.—The biggest event that has ever occurred in this place in Italian circles took place last night when two children of sunny Italy joined fortunes and were made man and wife amid the glare of fireworks and the shrieking strains of a brass band. The contracting parties were John Gallia, a quarryman, and Mary Morrill. They were married at the home of the bride and fellow countrymen of the couple to the number of 400 were present. The band played almost unceasingly for three hours after the ceremony, and wine flowed like water. The Italian colony was present en masse.

$15,000 FIRE IN PUTNAM.
Putnam, Dec. 22.—Fire broke out at 229 this morning in the Putnam Foundry and Machine Manufacturing Co.'s plant. The entire plant was burned out and a total loss of $15,000 was caused.

The fire, the origin of which is uncertain, was discovered in a passage shed connecting the foundry with the machine shop. Owing to the defective fire alarm service the firemen were half an hour in reaching the scene in fighting trim. By that time the foundry had been burned to the ground, and the flames had taken hold of the machine shop in such a fashion that the department was helpless. The loss on the buildings, together with irreparable damage done to valuable patterns brings the loss to the figures mentioned above.

There are two theories as to the origin of the fire. One is that a spark from a New England railroad locomotive caused the shed to ignite, but the fact that the tracks are 200 feet distant makes this theory impracticable. Inasmuch, therefore, as no fires are kept in the boiler room it is thought that the fire is the work of an incendiary.

A SENSATIONAL ELOPEMENT.
Bridgeport, Dec. 22.—This city is greatly stirred up over the disappearance and probable elopement of Miss Ruby Bennett, a pretty nineteen-year-old girl, and an heiress to $100,000. Miss Bennett is a striking young woman of the Titian type and is the daughter of the late Frank Bennett. She has resided for some years with her aunt, Mrs. Clara Bennett, at 153 Washington avenue. The house is owned by Miss Bennett, but managed by her aunt. Miss Bennett and Mrs. Bennett have not coincided with their views at all times and Mrs. Bennett has been more or less strict with her niece. Three years ago Ruby's father died and left her a fortune. Last night it was discovered that the girl had disappeared, and it is supposed she has eloped with Frank Kately, thirty, a painter employed in a decorating shop on State street. Miss Bennett has been with this man considerably and he, too, is missing. Accordingly the conclusion is drawn that the two are together. James Staples, a prominent banker of Bridgeport, is Mrs. Bennett's guardian. As soon as he learned of her disappearance he notified the police and telegraphic alarms were sent out to stop the couple. Up to date nothing has been heard of Miss Bennett. It was learned to-night that Kately is a married man. About four months ago, however, his wife left him, taking with her their five-year-old child. Miss Bennett, the eloping girl, left a note for her aunt informing her that she was going to run away and get married. It seems that Kately had been doing some decorating in Mrs. Bennett's house and that while he was at work there Miss Bennett fell in love with him and yielded to his proposal to run away and get married.

THE NEW HAVEN PILGRIMS.

The Subject of Judge Baldwin's Address at United Church Last Evening—American Idealism as Illustrated in the Attitude of the People of the Venezuelan Affair.

At United Church last evening Judge Simon E. Baldwin delivered an address on "The New Haven Pilgrims," the occasion being the commemoration of Forefathers' day under the auspices of the Men's club of United Church. After describing preliminary steps in England, Judge Baldwin said that in June, 1630, Davenport, with Theophilus and Samuel Eaton, sailed for Boston on the ship Hector. Soon after landing they negotiated for the land between the lower part of the Connecticut and Hudson rivers and acquired a part of it. The land near the mouth of the Quinnipiac river was reported to Davenport and the Eatons to be in a favorable location for settlement, as the mouth of the river afforded anchorage for ships and the surrounding meadows were quite extensive. A party of seven soon after arrived in New Haven and settled near where Commerce street now is, the reason of their choice of this location being a fine spring of water which bubbled forth at that place. One of the party died before spring and when the foundations were dug for the building at the corner of Meadow street and Congress avenue the bones of the man were found. Davenport preached the first sermon in New Haven under a large oak tree which stood near what is now the corner of College and George streets now is. In a house occupying the same site years after was born Lyman Beecher, the father of Henry Ward Beecher. In 1638 the planters of Quinnipiac, as the settlement was then called, met and agreed that all public officers concerned with the civil order should be governed by rules of Scripture. In June, 1639, the planters reassembled in a barn near where the New Haven Colony Historical society building now stands, and agreed upon a definite scheme of government for both the church and the colony on the same basis. Davenport believed in restricting the right of franchise to church members only, while Samuel Eaton objected to this plan. Davenport's idea, however, prevailed. In November five hundred pounds was raised to erect a meeting house, which was built on the lower part of the present green, then known as the "Market Place." In the New Haven colony affairs of the colony and the church were discussed at the same meeting and the expenses of each were paid from the same taxes. No other settlement in America excelled as regards the means and intelligence of its founders, the New Haven colony.

In speaking of the excitement produced throughout the country the past week by the phase of the Venezuelan affair, Judge Baldwin said: "This sweep of national feeling, of national passion, shall I say, that thrills our people to-day throughout the land, called forth by a few emphatic words from the president of the United States and inspired by a tradition of the past—what is it but American idealism, stronger, bolder, but not higher, for it could not be, than that which animated the founders of New England?"

Just previous to saying this Mr. Baldwin had asserted that Americans put their ideals into their lives, while people of other nations put their ideas into literature.

The address touched on a subject ever interesting to New Haveners and the speaker's words were closely listened to by the audience.

An Attractive Tour.

The Illinois Central railroad company announces an excursion from New England points to picturesque old Mexico to cover a period of thirty-seven days, the expense of the entire trip covering every possible outlay, being only $21.25. A solid vestibuled train of Pullman palace cars, starting from Boston January 18, will convey the tourists, there being no change on the entire route. A large number of the ancient Aztec cities will be visited, and ample time afforded the excursionists to study the wonders of these prehistoric people. At the City of Mexico, United States Minister Ransom will entertain the party, and they will also meet the prominent army and civil officers of the Mexican government. Seven days in all will be spent at the capital. Further information can be obtained of C. A. Florence, the general agent of the Illinois Central at Boston, or of Peck & Bishop of this city.

DOWN TO $68,000.00.

Treasury Gold Reserve at the Close of Business Saturday.

Washington, Dec. 22.—At the close of business Saturday the treasury gold reserve stood with all withdrawals at $68,841,950.

Saturday's gold withdrawals amounted to $490,000 taken for domestic use.

Refused to Pay His Counsel.

Isadore Stein has brought suit against John Donovan of 97 Grand avenue for $100 attorney fees. Mr. Stein, having been Donovan's counsel in his claim against the city for a broken leg last winter, Donovan was awarded $300 damages, but refused to pay his counsel. The papers were served on him last Saturday and a house on Day street belonging to him was attached.

"I WOULD RATHER DIE!"

On the third floor of an ordinary lodging house in the City of Brooklyn was found the body of a lodger, with a revolver by his side and a bullet in his head. In his pocket was found a book in which was written:

"I am tired of life because I am suffering from consumption. I would try to kill myself but I have no hope of getting better."

What a commentary on our boasted civilization! A poor wretch, suffering from what he supposed was an incurable disease, snuffs out his flickering life with a bullet. Where did he get the idea that his disease was incurable? From an old-time theory which modern investigation has exploded. Many diseases may be considered incurable, but that does not make them so. During the past few years scientists have discovered, in the tuberculosis germs, the cause of consumption. Their investigations have found a cure for the malady in Ozone and Guaiac. These agents destroy the germs which produce the disease. Compounded with pure Cod Liver Oil, they form Ozoneguaiac, which is sold by all Druggists. This remedy cures consumption and all lung troubles. It first destroys the cause of disease—the poisonous germs which produce it—and then restores the patient to perfect health. The Ozone and Guaiac kill the germs. The Cod Liver Oil provides the flesh and strength. That is the principle on which this medicine works. It is both rational and reasonable; and it is doing more for the cure of lung troubles than any other medicine.

LOCAL FINANCIAL NOTES.

Clearings of the New Haven banks for the past week show the usual increase over the corresponding week of last year. By the system of exchanges, the balance for the week of this year is $56,000 less than for the week of last year.

The rapid movement in stocks in the New York and Boston markets appears to have little effect upon the local stocks held in New Haven by investors. One reason for this is, very few of them are carried on margins, neither are they largely used as collateral for loans. New Haven investors as a rule have their investment stocks all paid for. The near approach of the January dividend period has brought out a few of the early investors, who are always looking for bargains at this time of the year. There are few of the purely local stocks on the market for sale, and it would be difficult to fill an order for any large amount. New York and New England railroad bonds are gradually appreciating in price since the purchase of a controlling interest in that property made by the New York, New Haven and Hartford railroad. These bonds while not actually guaranteed under lease in writing, are virtually endorsed by the New York, New Haven and Hartford railroad by reason of its ownership of the stock. They will undoubtedly sell on a basis close to the other lines which are leased or controlled by the New York, New Haven and Hartford railroad, which yield an income of 4 per cent, or a little less.

To-day the Welsbach Light company pay a cash dividend of 20 per cent, and the transfer books of the Central Railroad of Massachusetts close for a dividend of 4½ per cent, on the preferred stock; also the books of the Quincy Railroad Bridge company close for a semi-annual dividend of 5 per cent.

The Chicago Junction Railroad and Stock yards company has declared a semi-annual dividend of 4 per cent, on the common and 1½ per cent, on the preferred stocks, both payable January 2nd.

The Naugatuck railroad has declared a semi-annual dividend of 5 per cent, payable January 2; transfer books closed on Saturday.

The Wells, Fargo & Co. have declared a semi-annual dividend of 3 per cent, payable January 15.

The Westinghouse Manufacturing company has declared a quarterly dividend of 1½ per cent, payable January 2.

CHRISTMAS SERVICES.

At Howard Avenue Congregational Church.

Services appropriate to Christmas Sunday were held in this church yesterday. In the morning the pastor, Rev. W. J. Mutch, delivered an interesting sermon, taking for his text John, first chapter and fourth verse. The decorations of the church, consisting of palms and other plants, were under the direction of Miss Amanda Scobie. Miss Lucy Trent, Miss Mary A. Barnett, Miss Lucy Barnett and Miss Lillie B. Hull. The music by the full choir of fifteen voices was well rendered and was appreciated by the large congregation present.

In the evening the Christmas concert by the Sunday school was held and the church was filled with parents and friends of the scholars. The choir took part and the exercises consisted of recitations by Jeanie Henderson, Lillie Gay, and an address by Ed Manchester, superintendent of the school.

THE AMOUNT IS TREMENDOUS.

American Railroad Securities Held in England.

New York, Dec. 22.—In view of the present war talk and the panicky condition of the stock market the following summary of the amount of American securities held in England is interesting:

New York Central bonds and stocks, $157,000,000; Louisville and Nashville, $130,000,000; Lake Shore, $92,000,000; Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul, $200,000,000; Wabash, $132,000,000; Pennsylvania, $200,000,000; Union Pacific, $253,000,000; Philadelphia and Reading, $181,000,000; Northern Pacific, $218,000,000; Erie, $82,000,000; Chicago and Northwestern, $180,000,000; New York, Ontario and Western, $70,000,000; Southern Pacific, $415,000,000; Atchafalaya, Topka and Santa Fe, $321,000,000; Illinois Central, $111,000,000; Baltimore and Ohio, $104,000,000; Southern Railway, $244,000,000.

But the most vital part of the British investments in this country is the commercial credits, in which all trade relations between the two countries are involved. This item runs up into the hundred millions.

Anatomical Museum.
The anatomical museum of wonders is visited by large numbers daily. On Christmas it will be open day and evening for men only.

All But Five Drowned.

London, Dec. 22.—The British steamer Alicia, from Middlesbrough for Bilbao, has been sunk in collision with the British steamer Nettley Abbey, from London for Blythe. All the people on the Alicia, with the exception of five, who were drowned, were rescued by the Nettley Abbey.

Resented the Suggestion.

London, Dec. 22.—The fizzle which Rector Ahlwardt has made in his anti-Semitic campaign in America has still further discredited him among the anti-Semites here. A meeting of the democratic and Semitic union which was held yesterday resented the suggestion that in Ahlwardt's tour he was acting in any way in a representative capacity and it was explicitly declared that his trip was undertaken wholly without the knowledge of the union.

Germany's Population Increases.

Berlin, Dec. 22.—The results of the completed census of Germany shows the population of the empire to be 51,758,264, an increase of 2,393,394 over the census of 1890. All of the states of the empire show increases.

Senator Mott a Leader.

St. Louis, Dec. 22.—A local naval company is to be organized here. Senator Mott is one of the leaders of the movement.

Mountain Streams Rising.

Woodville, N. H., Dec. 22.—Rain began falling here at midnight and fell until noon to-day. Mountain streams are rising rapidly. The pressure of ice and water broke the boom of the Fall Mountain Paper company and some 200,000 feet of logs went down the river. The Connecticut river, has not commenced to rise.

Working Day and Night.

Santa Cruz, Cal., Dec. 22.—The powder works here are filling an order for 125,000 pounds of government powder ordered a month ago. Government contracts are filled at the works, but no order so large as the present has been received at this time. Men are working night and day to fill it. Whether or not this rush has anything to do with the war scare no one is prepared to say.

Disabled in a Gale.

Port Townsend, Wash., Dec. 22.—The American ship, Wachusett, coal laden, from Nantam to San Francisco, is being towed into this port in a disabled condition as the result of her encounters with recent gales off the coast. As the Wachusett is one of the staunchest and best manned of the coal fleet and the first to be heard from since the storm gale fears are entertained for other vessels exposed to its fury.

HEROIC WOMEN.

Their Struggle Against a Common and Merciless Enemy.

(SPECIAL TO OUR LADY READERS.)

Woman's heroism is not evinced by fortitude or enterprise in time of danger, but her courage and fortitude are unquestionable in time of suffering.

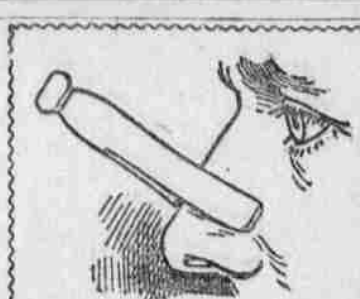

Think of the woman who smiles and tries to make those around her cheerful, while she is racked with the excruciating tortures of womb trouble.

Think of one who, day by day, begs her physician to help her, while the torture of tortures could not add to her misery.

Does she yield? No! She endures her agonies, and meets her friends with cheerfulness.

This is woman's heroism, and few men realize how prevalent they are. Physicians rarely render relief in such cases.

After twenty years of success, with increasing popularity, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is, to-day, woman's only sure and safe refuge from inflammation, ulceration, falling and displacement of the womb, ovarian trouble, leucorrhoea, painful and suppressed menstruation, kidney trouble, nervous prostration, and all manner of distressing and life-sapping female diseases.

Financial.

Another Collapse in Prices at the Start—The Bond Market Was Weak.

New York, Dec. 21.—President Cleveland's special message, appealing for authority to deal with the financial situation, was received to-day with the indifference of despair in the financial community.

There was another violent collapse in prices at the start to-day, the break being heaviest as a rule in stocks not owned abroad. Thus Rock Island broke 7 points more, Burlington 5, Whiskey certificates 3½, Northwestern 4, Chicago Gas ½, Lead preferred 6, New Jersey Central 6½, Consolidated Gas 8½, Delaware and Lackawanna ½, and so on. This was none of that malicious foreign liquidation to which speculators among the financial circles are ascribing everything. Despite a temporary rally on covering of shorts here and in London, the prevalent feeling at the close was extremely gloomy.

The bond market was again extremely weak under heavy home and foreign liquidation. Atchafalaya issues crumbling with special rapidity. Both the money market and the market for foreign exchange were more or less nominal, as little regular business is done in them on Saturday. But call money was bid up again on the stock exchange to 50 per cent. And the net result of the whole week's "object lesson" was such a sick collapse of jingoism among the rampant warriors of Wednesday that the sport of a mock war sensation is not likely to be witnessed again, this generation, within the financial purview of New York.

Following are the closing prices reported by Prince & Whately, bankers and brokers, 46 Broadway, New York, and 15 Center street, New Haven:
